

Program

Speech-language pathologists specialize in communication disorders as well as swallowing disorders for patients of all ages. Speech therapy collaborates with other health care professionals, working as part of a multidisciplinary team to best serve the unique needs of each patient.

Speech services begin with initial screening for communication and swallowing disorders and continue with assessment and diagnosis, consultation for the provision of advice regarding management, intervention and treatment and provision counseling and other follow up services.

Speech Therapy Services:

- Speech-sound disorders
- Oral motor
- Language delay
- Fluency
- Aural Rehabilitation
- Augmentative communication
- Feeding therapy
- Neuro-developmental delays/disabilities
- Neuro-developmental syndromes
- Cognitive Disorders

